

MAIN COURSES

CHICKEN DISHES

All dishes can be prepared according to your taste, mild, medium, hot or extra hot (Phal hot)

- |                                                                                                                                         |               |                                                                                                                             |                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 36. CHICKEN TIKKA MASALA                                                                                                         | 8.49 € | 45. CHICKEN MANGO                                                                                                    | 9.95 €  |
| Pieces of barbecued chicken cooked with cream, yoghurt, tomato and onion sauce.                                                         |               | Cooked with fresh mango sauce and special spices. Popular dish from Kashmir.                                                |                |
| 37. CHICKEN KORMA                                                                                                                | 8.49 € | 46. CHICKEN BHUNA                                                                                                    | 8.49 €  |
| Pieces of chicken cooked with cream, coconut & crushed nuts. A very mild dish.                                                          |               | Chicken cooked with chopped onions & tomato in a semi dry sauce.                                                            |                |
| 38. CHICKEN VINDALOO                                                                                                             | 8.49 € | 47. BUTTER CHICKEN                                                                                                   | 8.49 €  |
| Famous dish from Goa, made with tender chicken and cooked in hot ground vindaloo paste. For the people who have a passion for hot food. |               | Barbecued boneless chicken cooked with rich tomato and butter gravy. The most famous dish in north of India.                |                |
| 39. CHICKEN JALFREZI                                                                                                             | 8.49 € | 48. CHICKEN KARAH                                                                                                    | 8.49 €  |
| Chicken cooked with fried onion rings and peppers. The dish is famous for its different flavors & herbs.                                |               | Boneless pieces of chicken cooked with thick gravy of chopped tomato and garlic. Served in sizzling "karahi wok".           |                |
| 40. CHICKEN DOPIAZA                                                                                                              | 8.49 € | 49. CHICKEN BALTI                                                                                                    | 8.49 €  |
| Chicken pieces cooked with onion petals and Chef's special sauce.                                                                       |               | Boneless chicken cooked with deep fried peppers, chopped onions, ginger & garlic sauce, served in medium dry sauce.         |                |
| 41. CHICKEN SAAG                                                                                                                 | 8.49 € | 50. CHICKEN CHASHNI                                                                                                  | 10.95 € |
| Chicken cooked with spinach, onions, ginger, garlic and tomato sauce.                                                                   |               | Chicken cooked in special sweet & sour sauce, A chef's speciality.                                                          |                |
| 42. CHICKEN PASANDA                                                                                                              | 9.95 € | 51. CHICKEN DANSAK                                                                                                   | 8.49 €  |
| Chicken cooked with pistachio nut powder & touch of red wine with bit of cream.                                                         |               | Chicken cooked with lentils in onion gravy. A delicious Medium-sweet-dish. Can be served with pineapple garnish if ordered. |                |
| 43. CHICKEN MADRAS                                                                                                               | 8.49 € | 52. CHICKEN CURRY                                                                                                    | 8.49 €  |
| A unique south Indian dish. Boneless chicken cooked in thick medium sauce of grated coconut cream & a touch of lemon.                   |               | The most common curry dish from India, boneless chicken cooked in a unique mixture of twenty four spices based sauce.       |                |
| 44. CHICKEN ROGAN JOSH                                                                                                           | 8.49 € | 53. CHICKEN PATIA                                                                                                    | 8.49 €  |
| Chicken & chopped tomato, first fried with butter then cooked in special sauce.                                                         |               | Boneless chicken fried with lemon slices and cooked with tomato and onion gravy.                                            |                |
| 44. CHICKEN ACHARI                                                                                                               | 9.95 € | 54. CHICKEN HYDRABADI                                                                                                | 9.95 €  |
| Chicken cooked with fresh spice Ghee and coriander with homemade pickles to give that tangy flavour.                                    |               | Boneless chicken cooked in special sauce in hydrabadi style.                                                                |                |

We use boneless pieces from the chicken breast, which is cleaned & manipulated by us